

K-State Gamers Board

Parental Consent/Release of Liability/Terms of Membership

The K-State Gamers Board (KGB) holds regular open meetings for competitive video gaming. The KGB supports the Entertainment Software Rating Board industry rating system and the voluntary compliance of this system. Any attendee to the open meetings who is under 18 years of age must provide a signed consent from their parent or guardian.

Parental Consent

As the parent or guardian of _____ (DOB ____/____/____) who is under 18 years of age, I understand that by signing this consent form, I am giving permission for the minor to attend and participate in KGB open meetings that may include, but is not limited to, the use/viewing of M-mature rated games.

I release the KGB and Kansas State University, staff members, employees, volunteers, sponsors, and club members from any and all liabilities and/or claims that may arise from allowing a minor to participate in events that use M-mature games, including liability for negligence.
